25X1	Α	25>
	HANDLE VIA	2631-66 Copy_sf_
		1 8 JUL 1966
(1A	MEMORANDUM POI	R: Deputy Director for Science and Technology
	ATTENTION	: Special Assistant to the DD/S&T
	SUBJECT	: Design Review Board
	REFERENCE	: DD/ShT-3146-68; dated 14 June 66; subject: Design Review Board first to provi	easoning behind these changes was threefold; ide flexibility in the procedures to accommodate g types and sizes (dollars) of contracts, second first to providely varying to clarify the and third to DES by the ide	ide flexibility in the procedures to accommodate g types and sizes (dollars) of contracts, second e position of the project officer and contractor, reduce the administrative lead on the Chairman, entification of a Secretariat.
	first to provided yearying to clarify the and third to DES by the identification of the second of th	ide flexibility in the procedures to accommodate g types and sizes (dollars) of contracts, second e position of the project officer and contractor, reduce the administrative load on the Chairman,
	first to provided yearying to clarify the and third to DES by the identification of the second of th	ide flexibility in the procedures to accommodate g types and sizes (dollars) of contracts, second e position of the project officer and contractor, reduce the administrative load on the Chairman, entification of a Secretariat. eneral, we feel that a procedure such as that he attachment is useful for large or complex elopment programs. However, I feel that many er the cognizance of OSA do not fall in this can be adequately monitored using less formal I assume that current contracts will continue to
1A	first to provided yearying to clarify the and third to DES by the identification of the second of th	ide flexibility in the procedures to accommodate g types and sizes (dollars) of contracts, second e position of the project officer and contractor, reduce the administrative load on the Chairman, entification of a Secretarist. eneral, we feel that a procedure such as that he attachment is useful for large or complex elopment programs. However, I feel that many er the cognizance of OSA do not fall in this can be adequately monitored using less formal I assume that current contracts will continue to under OSA's presently established procedures. JOHN PARANGOSKY
	first to providely varying to clarify the and third to DES by the identify the identify the identification of	ide flexibility in the procedures to accommodate g types and sizes (dollars) of contracts, second e position of the project officer and contractor, reduce the administrative load on the Chairman, entification of a Secretarist. eneral, we feel that a procedure such as that he attachment is useful for large or complex elopment programs. However, I feel that many er the cognizance of OSA do not fall in this can be adequately monitored using less formal I assume that current contracts will continue to under OSA's presently established procedures. JOHN PARANGOSKY
(1A (1A	first to providely varying to clarify the and third to DES by the identified in the equipment device ontracts under category and procedures, be menitored. Attachment: PS/OSA	ide flexibility in the procedures to accommodate g types and sizes (dollars) of contracts, second e position of the project officer and contractor, reduce the administrative load on the Chairman, entification of a Secretariat. eneral, we feel that a procedure such as that he attachment is useful for large or complex elopment programs. However, I feel that many er the cognizance of OSA do not fall in this can be adequately monitored using less formal I assume that current contracts will continue to under OSA's presently established procedures. JOHN PARANGOSKY Acting Director for Special Activities As Stated first to providely varying to clarify the and third to DES by the identification of the equipment device on tracts under category and procedures, be monitored. Attachment:	ide flexibility in the procedures to accommodate g types and sizes (dollars) of contracts, second e position of the project officer and contractor, reduce the administrative load on the Chairman, entification of a Secretariat. eneral, we feel that a procedure such as that he attachment is useful for large or complex elopment programs. However, I feel that many er the cognizance of OSA do not fall in this can be adequately monitored using less formal I assume that current contracts will continue to under OSA's presently established procedures. JOHN PARANGOSKY Acting Director for Special Activities As Stated cec:4526:15 July 66

CROSEP 1
Local from sutomatic downspacing and declaration declaration of the sutomatic downspacing and declaration and declaration of the sutomatic declaration of the sutomatic substitution of the substitut